
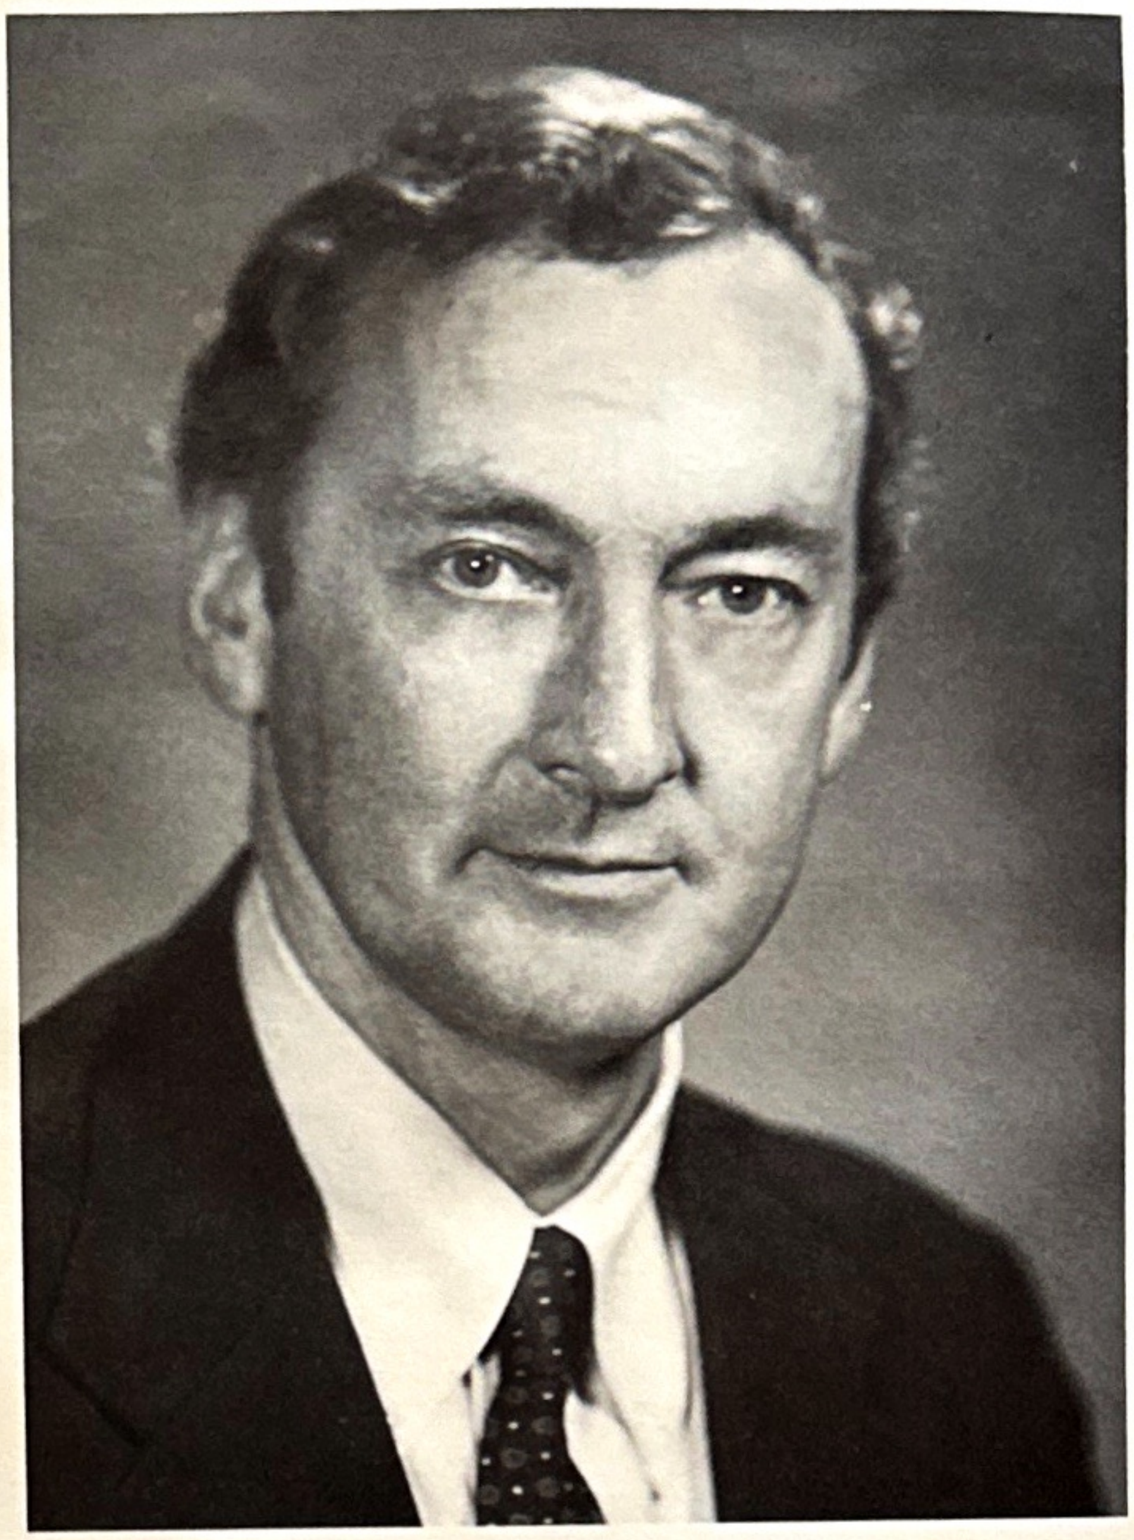
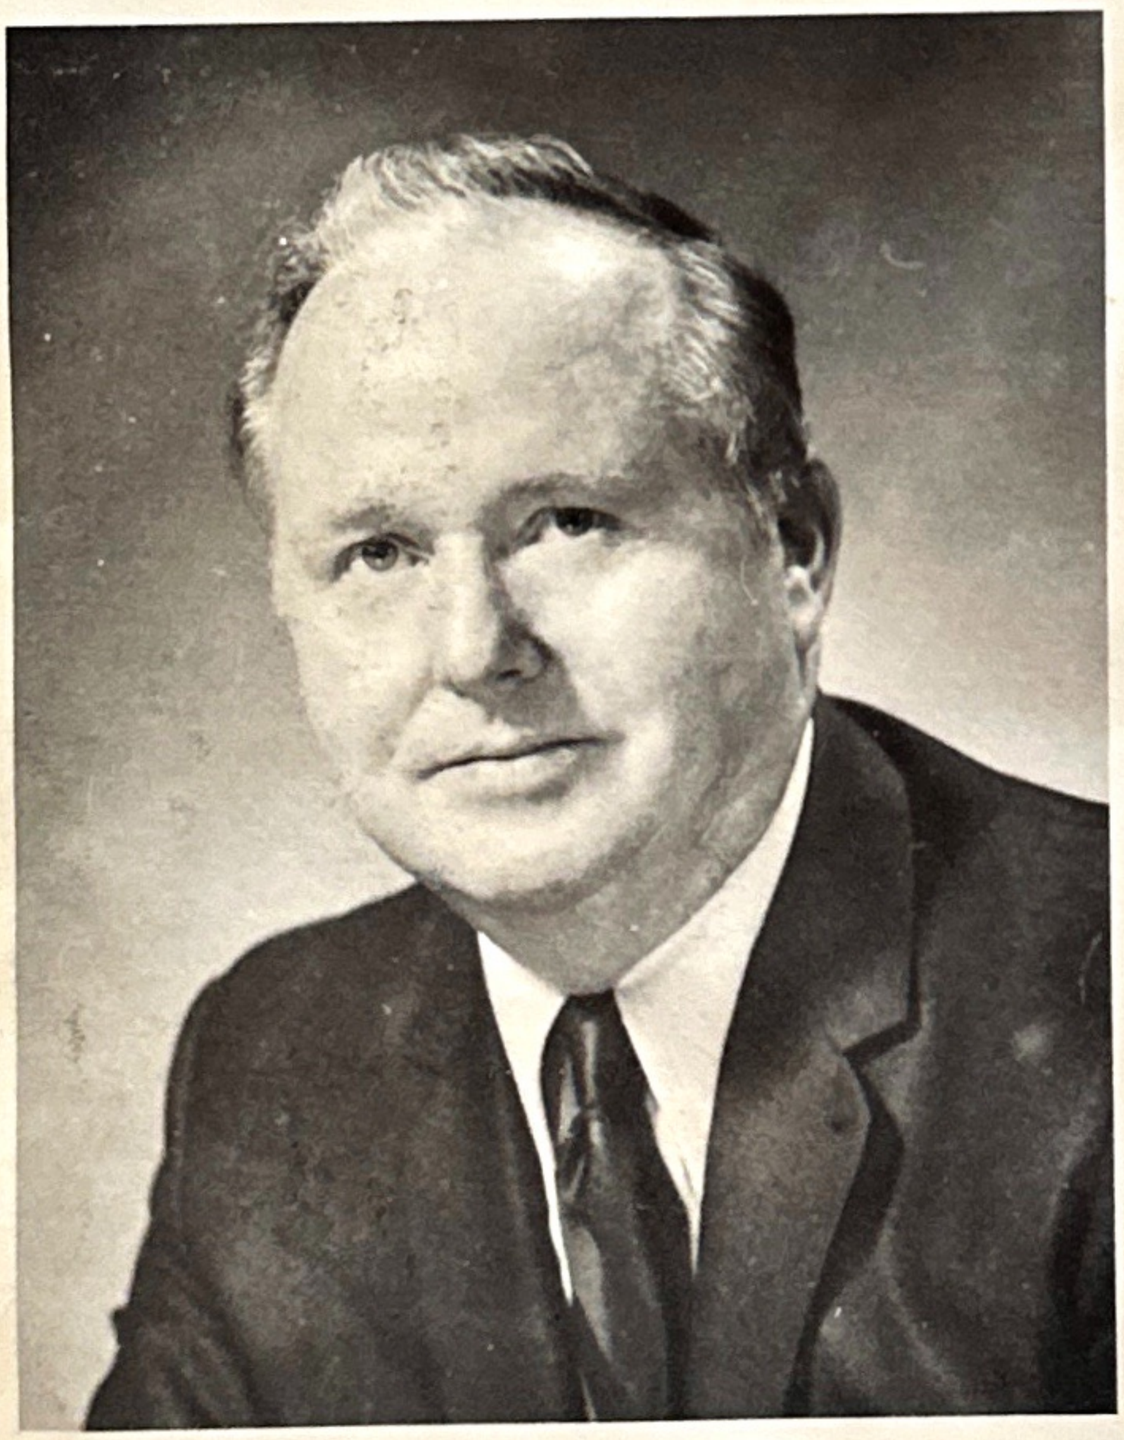
WELCOME SUPERINTENDENT MR. LEWIS ERNST



Mr. Ernst came to Hingham in 1963 as a history teacher. He later became the Assistant Principal of the high school until 1970 when he left Hingham to become a Principal of Framingham North High School. He returned to Hingham in 1974 as Assistant Superintendent. He served in this position until January 1982 when he became Superintendent.



THANK YOU DR. WILLIAM MAHONEY

Dr. Mahoney came to Hingham in 1965 from Connecticut. During his Superintendency he brought many new programs to Hingham. His recognition throughout the country reveales his contributions to both the Hingham Public Schools and education in general.

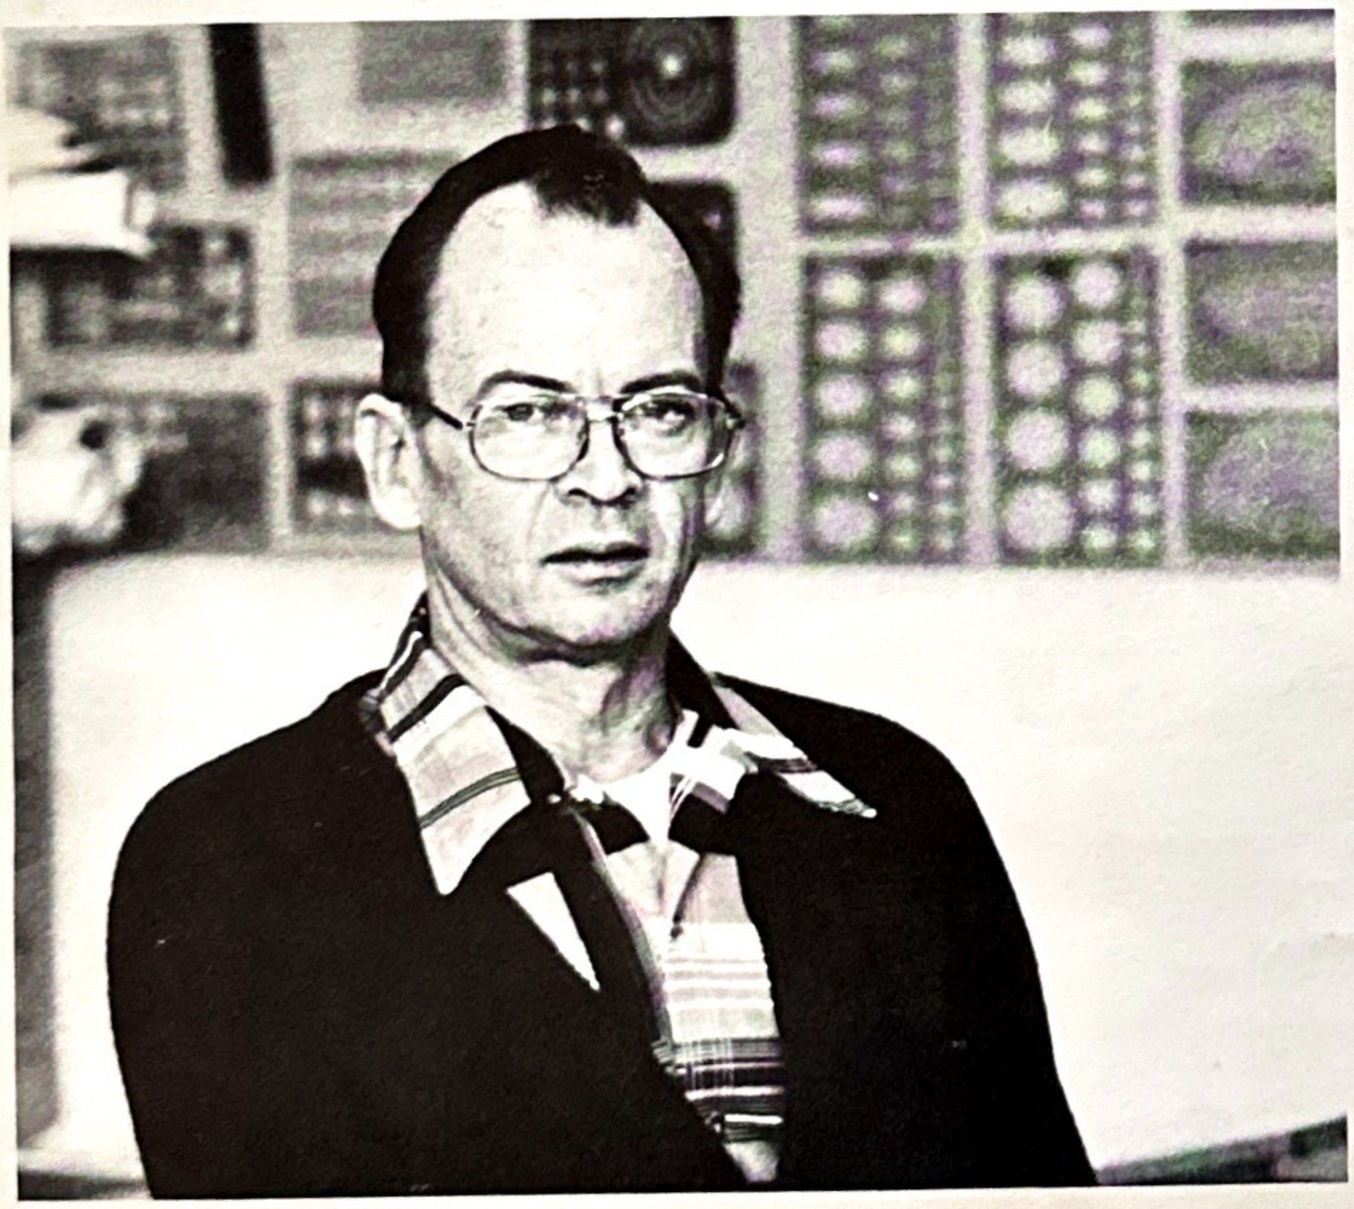
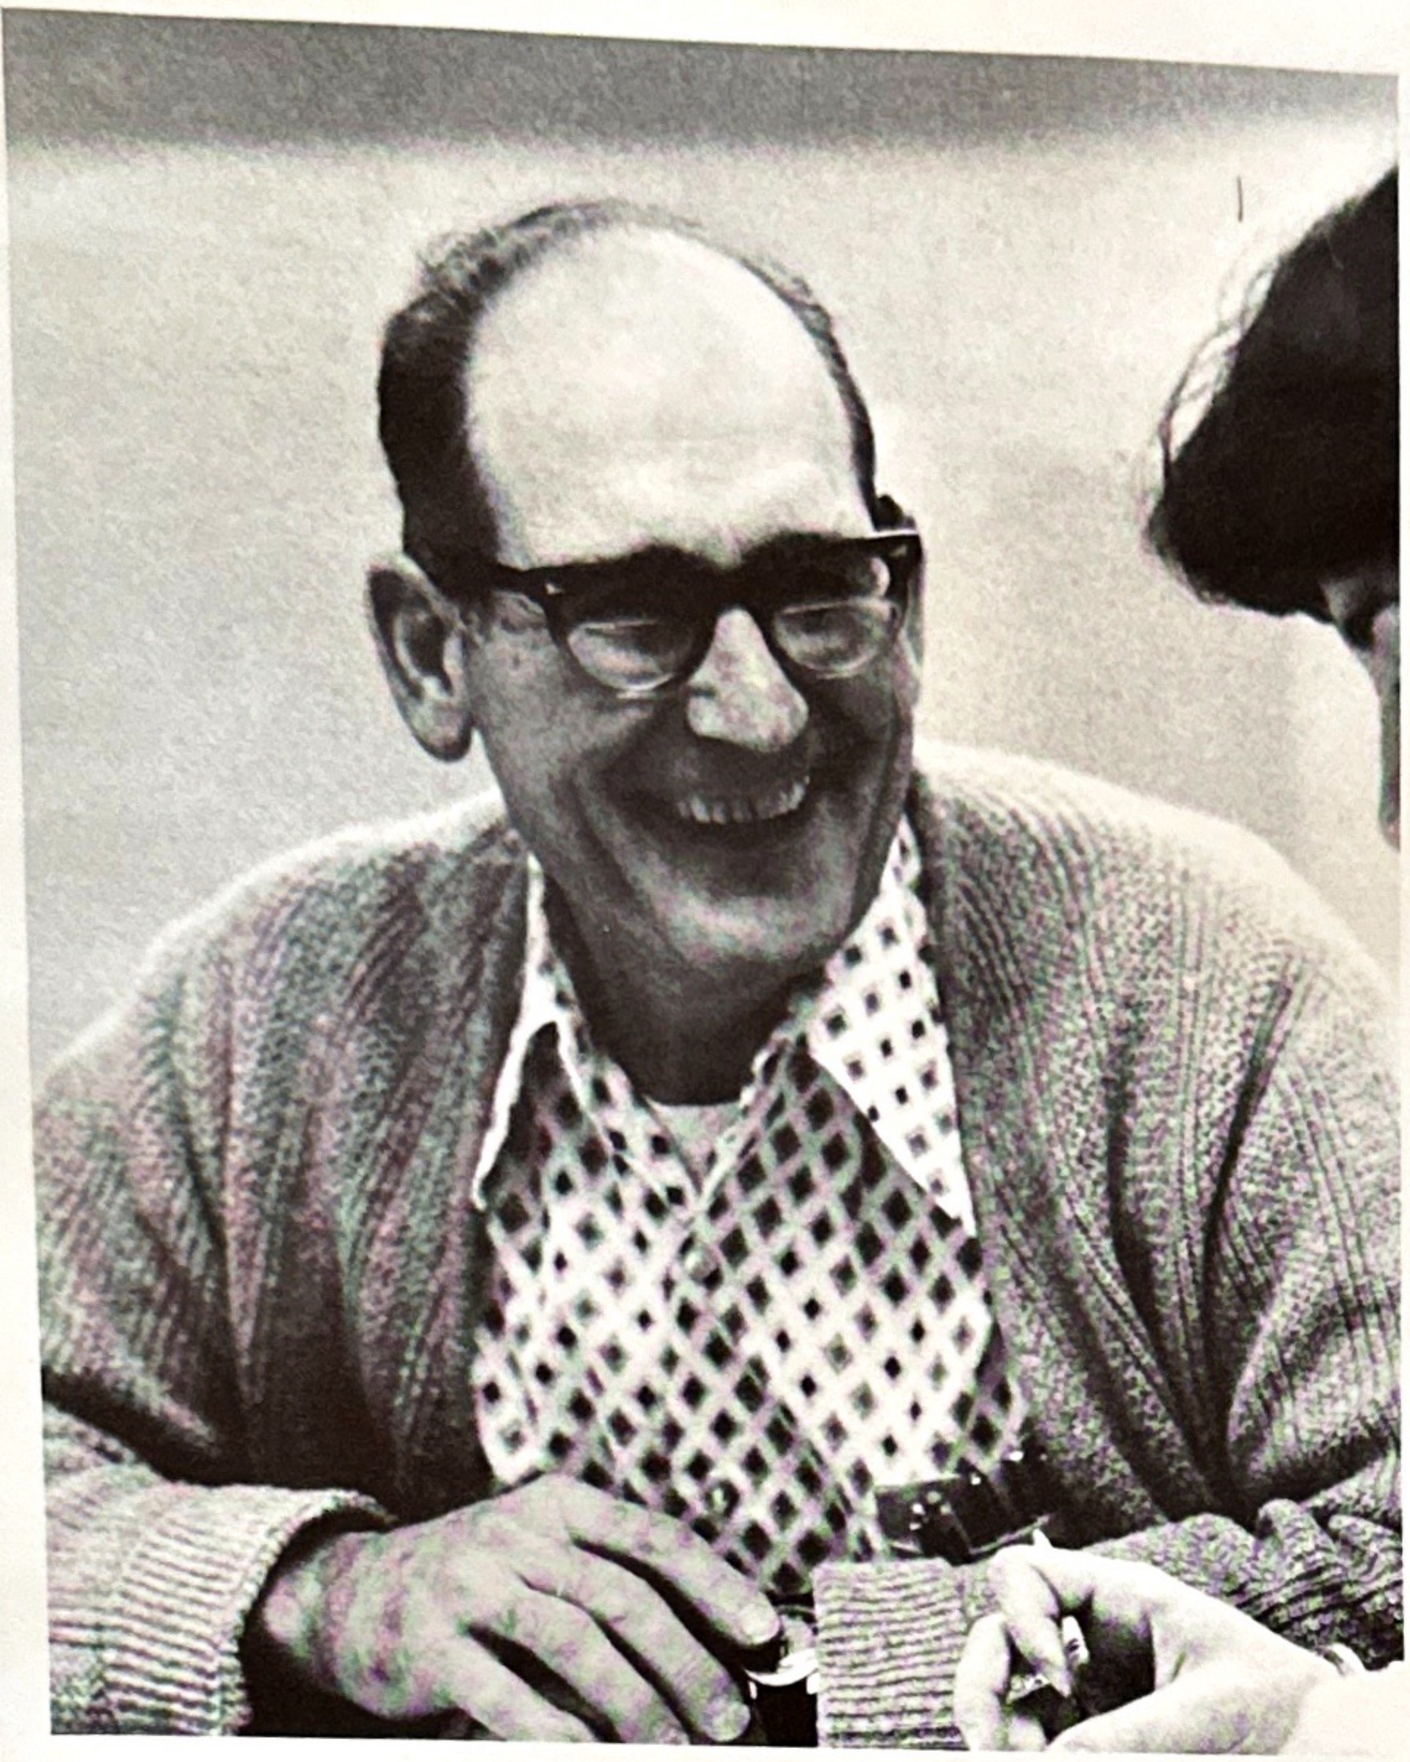
Angela Epple

Angela Epple came to Hingham in 1959. She was involved with the Drama Club and the Debate Club. She is known for her yearly Thoreau Walk. Students who had the fortune to have Mrs. Epple in American Literature had the pleasure of learning about a variety of great American personalities. She died in 1981.



Carl Schmatzler

Carl Schmatzler came to Hingham in 1955. He taught industrial arts and mechanical drawing in both the junior and senior high school. His concern for detail encouraged many of his students to pursue careers in design and architecture. He died in 1981.



Jack Wallace

Mr. Jack Wallace came to Hingham in 1956 from Randolph. He served as Department Head of Mathematics from 1965 to 1968. He then returned to the classroom full time. His contributions to the school are most extensive. He retired in 1981.

Mr. Thomas Lane came to Hingham in 1954 and taught art in both the junior and senior high schools. Many of his students have become well recognized in the field of art. He retired in 1981.

Stan Curtis was one of Hingham's warm and friendly custodians. He always was seen doing some task to keep the building clean. He retired in 1981.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF THANKS MR. DONALD SULLIVAN

YEARBOOK STAFF

Good luck, Julie
Donald Sullivan

The Yearbook editors; Peter DeBruin, Doug Ewing, Mark Murphy; would like to thank all those who contributed to the making of this book, especially Richard Knab and Marcia Brown.

Hilary Aborn: Die young and stay pretty. Blondie.

Nicole Achille: Music says it all with an English accent. Elton, Beatles, Bowie Forever . . .

Rose Mary Alciere: "You can't spread peanut-butter with a paper knife." Gerald Ford.

Charles Anderson: "If you don't say anything, you won't be called upon to repeat it." Calvin Coolidge

Kathy Archard: "I found him in the shining of the stars." Tennyson

Jane Arena: "Never look back, walk tall, act fine." David Bowie '76

John Armstrong: Friends are only as close as you let them be.

Margaret Avery: If you see someone without a smile, give them one of yours.

Mary Allen Avery: "It is the time you have wasted for your rose that makes your rose so important." Antoine de Saint Exupery

Anthony Joseph Barbuto: Even if it takes all I have to give, I'll give it all.

Kathleen Barrows: For some dreams can come true.

Keith Bartlett: "And though our health we drank a thousand times, it's time to ramble on." Led Zep

Judith Ann Barton: Best friends are those who know to keep the same silences.

Kenneth Ian Barton: I was here but now I'm gone, I left just my name to carry Jill M. Baylow: Music is the gift of the soul that washes away the dust of every day life.

John Belton: A.L.S.P.

Sarah Benson: Education is what remains when we have forgotten all that we have been taught.

Kevin Berard: If the Doors of Perception were cleansed, man would see life as it truly is — infinite.

Karla Berggren: Love doesn't make the world go round but it sure makes the trip a lot easier.

Lance Billard: And in the end, the love you take is equal to the love you made.

Nancy Bishop: I don't want you to worry for me cuz I'm alright.

Susan Lee Black: We are the seedling about to flower, we are the morning about to flower, we are the dry earth breathing in showers, we are the pilgrim finding a way.

Susan Blackwood: I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday and I love today.

Christine Bonnichon: Unless you try, you will never know if you can do it, but when you do, GO FOR IT.

Kevin Bonnyman: Two roads diverged into a wood and I — I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference.

Laurie Ann Boretti: The truth of the man lies in all his dreams.

Prisca Boris: Life is crazy . . . like a patchwork quilt. PARTY!

Stacey Brash: But for friendship all would be loneliness. Since then I've never looked back, it's almost like living a dream.

Rika Brazis: Remember Me.

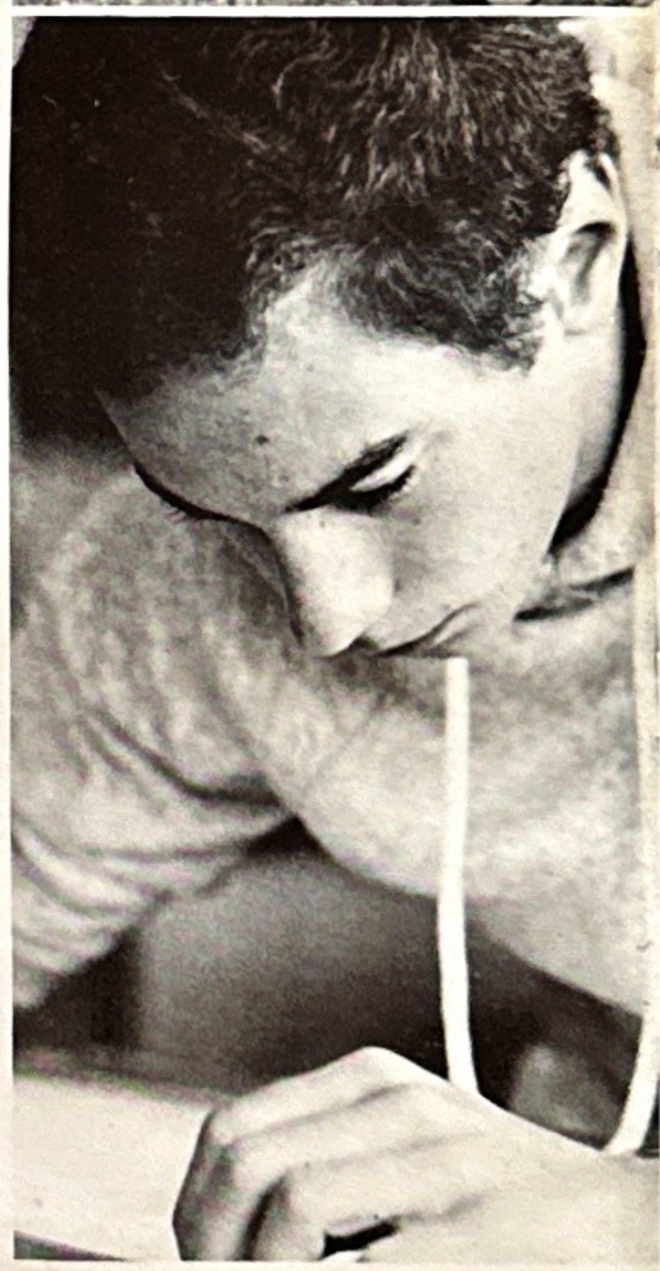
Julie Ann Brown: Bob (7-9-81) B.M. + S.H., N.B. + S.S.V. Nights, California Bound, Frick + Frack, Tak-A-Taco.

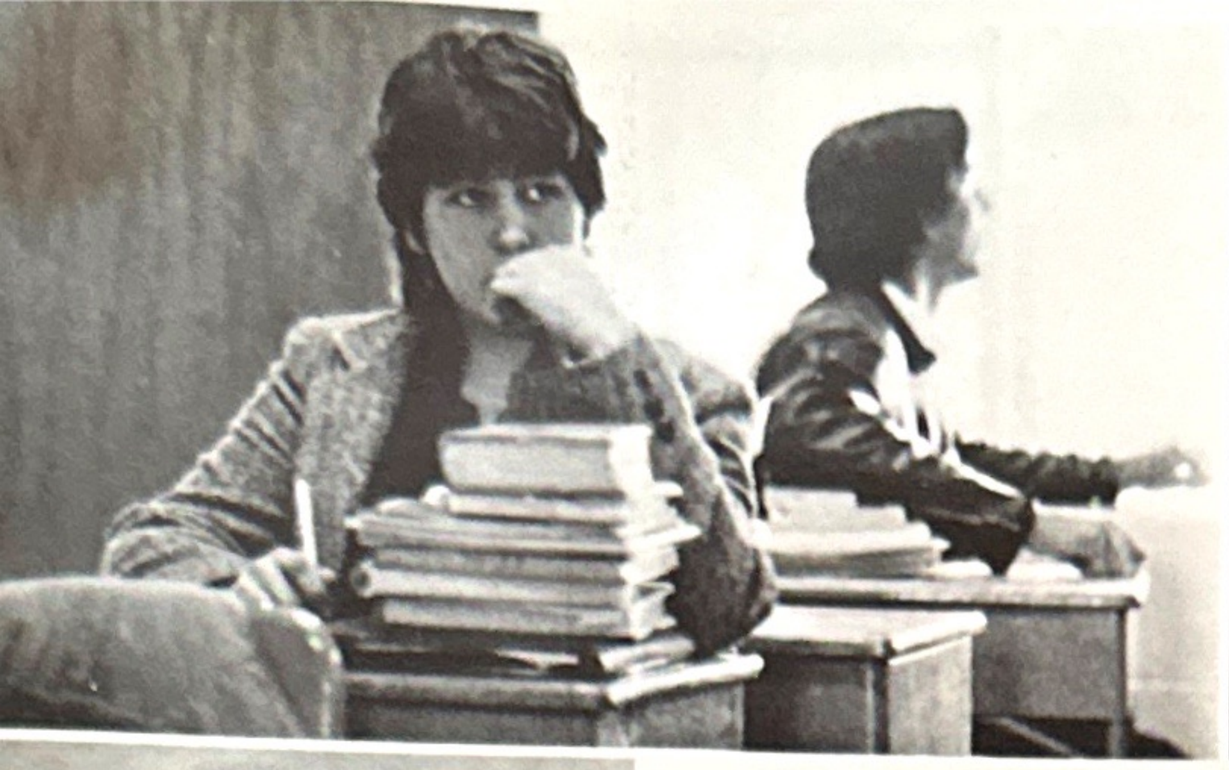
Marcia Lynette Brown: My education is dismal, I went to a series of schools for mentally retarded teachers.

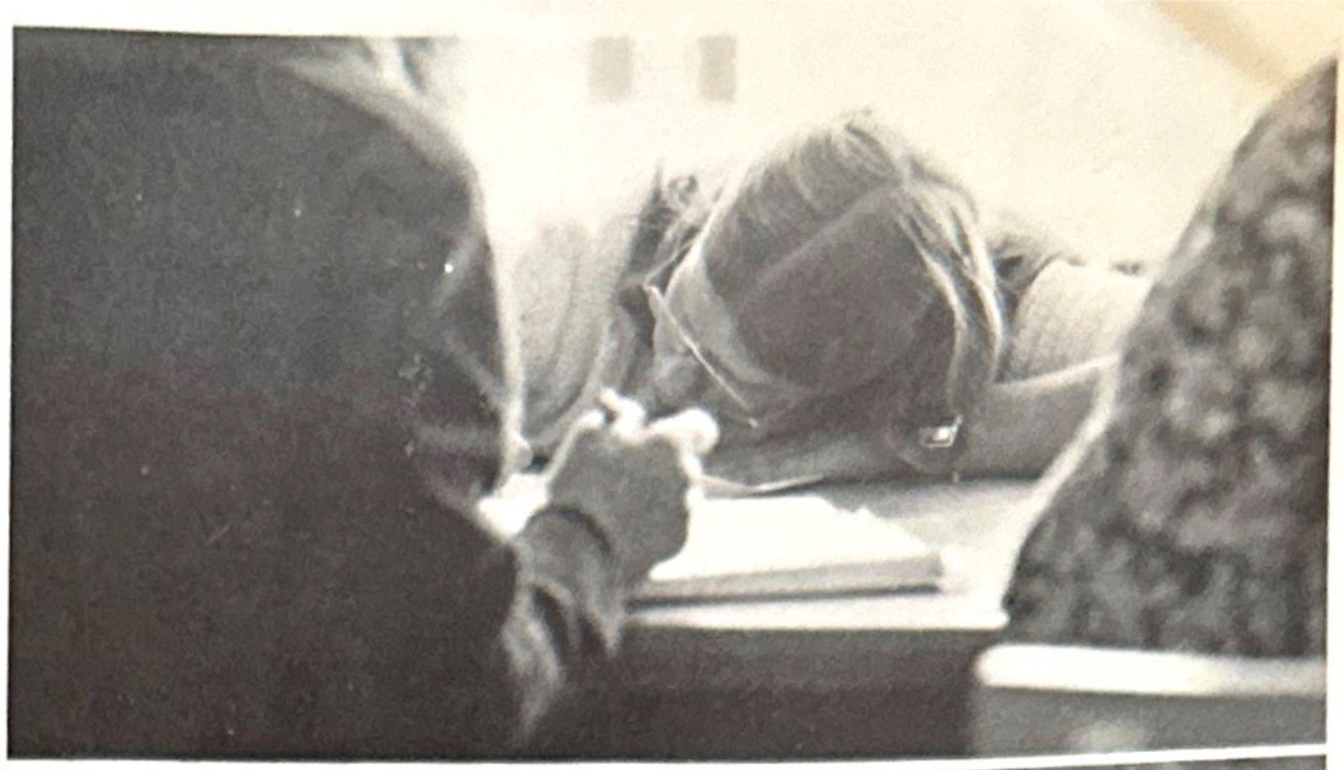
Marilyn C. Brown: I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday, and I love today.

Jamie D. Brown: You may think that you're here for the pizza on Fridays, you know what you're really here for, it's that brand new leopard-skin pill-box hat.

Kathleen M. Browne: Life can only be understood backwards, but it must be lived forwards.







Lynne Burke: When you think your life is in confusion just remember it's a grand illusion.

Maureen Butler: "It is only with the heart that one can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye." The Little Prince

Karen Caira: What we have here is a failure to communicate.

Jayne Marlene Capano: Life is what happens while you're making other plans.

Kathleen Mary Cappella: A true friend is like the setting sun, they will always return.

Andrea Dickinson Carr: Accept me as I am so I may learn what I can become.

Daniel M. Casey: To live your life in your own way . . . to reach for the goals you have set for yourself . . . to be the you that you want to be — that is success.

Denise Marie Cataldo: The worthiness of life is measured by the intensity of friendship.

Caryl Chambers: Even the longest journey begins with a single step.

Robert Wayne Ciccolo Jr.: All of a sudden it's my life and I'm living it.

Jay Clogston: Is your mind so small that you have to fall in with the pack wherever they run.

Denise Cody: Time pass . . . but memories last.

Lori A. Colford: How beautiful a day can be when kindness touches it.

Joan Comer: "I've been happy lately thinking about the good things to come, and I believe that it could be that good things have begun." Cat Stevens.

Rabon A. Cooke: In the world there are people who do things and people who get the credit. Become part of the first group, there's far less competitions.

Bill Cronin: Life is not measured by the time we live.

Alison Culler: The secrets of life is enjoying the passage of time.

Mark Cummings: I've been dazed and confused for so long it is not true.

Scott Dahill: "He was a wise man who originated the idea of God." Plato.

Elizabeth T. Danforth: Although many miles may separate us and we may never meet again, The happiness will remain, A memory mounted and framed, Forever in the album of my life — wish you were here.

Edward E. Dann: . . . . . And that's the name of that tune.

Peter DeBruin: The meeting of two personalities is like the contact of two chemical substances: if there is any reaction, both are transformed.

Karen Delmonico: Losing on your own terms is better than winning on anybody else's.

Josephine DeVito: Do something today to bring happiness to someone whose pleasures are few.

Marie Diaz: A friend is just a smile away.

Stephen R. Diaz: The fittest shall survive but the unfit may live, wear gaudy colors or avoid display it's all the same.

Christopher DiCenso: Minds are like parachutes — they only function when open.

James Diezemann: Set your course by the stars, not by the lights of Passing ships.

Lani Jean Doland: Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, I may not lead. Walk beside me, and just be my friend.

Stephen J. Dolphyn: "The time is gone, the song is over, thought I'd something more to say." Pink Floyd.

W. Richard Donaldson: "Man this really takes the cake This town is like a prison And I just gotta make my break"

Lisa Doody: The best times are yet to come . . .

Susan Doonan: And you and I climb over the valley to the endless seas . . . my friends . . .

Amy Dorion: Hope is not a dream but a way of making dreams become reality.

Julie,
I can't begin to tell you all the things that have happened since 7th grade. I'll always remember singing with you. Track was a blast, you're a excellent runner and a nice friend.
Love ya,
your best friend
